

THIS JOLLY GROUP gathered on the lawn of the Richard Allen home is composed of Rotary of Space Center members and their ladies, participating in their summer barbecue. Last Saturday's clear weather, tasty barbecue, cool drinks and lively conversation helped to make the affair a great success.

As with every outing, something is usually amiss. About the time that everyone was finishing their loaded plates of food, it was discovered that someone had forgotten to put the beans on the table.

