Re: Rotary Award for Excellence in Education

Dear Rotarians:

I want to thank each of you for answering Rotary's call. If you do not already know it, you have just accepted a very special assignment with some outstanding co-workers. I believe each of you may get as much from this experience as you surely will bring into it. I am really looking forward to this.

Your committee is part of a larger committee working on this new project. Your responsibility will be to develop a protocol for selecting the teacher of the year, plus to conduct the interviews and make the selection. My role will be to keep you organized and moving along, and on the day of the interviews I will be the facilitator and moderator. I will greet the teachers and introduce them to you, keep you aware of time, and generally facilitate the program that day. I will sit in on as much of the interview as possible so that I can help render a final opinion, but the difficult selection responsibility will fall on you. This should be a challenging and rewarding experience.

I will bring an agenda of sorts to our first organizational meeting, but primarily it will be to pool our ideas on how to proceed as well as to define the task ahead and the time table.

As each of you know, the meeting will be:

7AM Thursday
21 Feb 91
Hilton Restaurant

Yours in Rotary,
David Taylor
